Suggestions and Inquiries, To the Editor:

Sir—A stranger in this city, on boarding a ferry boat running between Norfolk and Portsmouth, is met with "You are requested not to expectorate on the deck, as the germs breed disease." If the authorities were to divert their attention to the streets, leaving the boats to care for themselves, they would be doing the public a favor.

From 7 a. m. Monday till 2:30 Tuesday a lot of decomposed crabs and other decayed matter has been heaped in front of 25 Williams street, and is still among us.

"The nearer the Church, the farther from Heaven." We are within two minutes' walk of the police station and within sixty yards of the headquarters of the Health Department, yet Granby and outlying districts are comparatively clean.

Where is Williams street, anyhow? Echo answers: "In the shadow of the Court-house." KILLARNEY.

Slowly but surely have our Oxford mixtures worked their way to the front. Your next suit should be one of them. Tailored in our own exclusive way. RUDOLPH & WALLACE, 333 Main street.

OLD POINT COMFORT COLLEGE

Dedicated Yesterday by Bishop A. Van de Vyver.

FATHER WILSON SPEAKS

The College Erected by the Xaverian Brothers, Dedicated to the Cause of Religious Education—Addresses of Welcome by the Bishop—Father Wilson Speaks on Christian Education—St. Mary's Drum Corps.

Old Point Comfort College was dedicated yesterday by the Right Rev. Bishop A. Van de Vyver, of Richmond. St. Mary's Life and Drum Corps of this city, accompanied by a large crowd, left on the 7:30 o'clock train via the Ocean View railway to take part in the exercises. They rendered several selections en route. They were met at the college gate by a committee of students and escorted through the grounds to the main building, playing national airs as they went. The visitors were taken in charge by the Xaverian Brothers and escorted through the building, from cellar to garret.

The college is a three story building, fitted out with all modern improvements, ample protection in case of fire, it is an ideal place, situated on the water front, on the line of the Newport News, Old Point and Buckroe Beach railway, and has excellent facilities for the amusement of its students. The cost of the college and grounds was $15,000.

THE BISHOP SPEAKS.

Bishop Van de Vyver delivered a short address of welcome. He said he didn't prepare a speech, but would speak from his mind only. He said we are here today to dedicate a college, the first Catholic college to be dedicated in this diocese. The Catholic Church has always been a strong advocate of a Christian, as well as a secular or scientific education, and here we have both. This is a house of God as well as an institution for the teaching and the making of young men efficient citizens and true followers of Jesus Christ. The Bishop then closed his remarks, saying Rev. Father Wilson, of the Sacred Heart Church, of Norfolk, would speak on "Education" at the conclusion of the solemn high mass.

THE DEDICATION.

The Bishop then began the dedication by first blessing the chapel. A procession, through the building followed. A brother, bearing the image of the crucifixion, followed by another brother, with the incense; a priest, carrying the holy water, in which the Bishop would dip a brush and sprinkle the walls and floor of the building, constituted the procession. Beginning at the lower floor, the procession proceeded through the building, the Bishop sprinkling every room with holy water, at the same time repeating his blessing.

SOLEMN HIGH MASS.

Solemn high mass was said in the chapel of the college at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Father D. Coleman, of Old Point, was the celebrant; Rev. Father J. Frioli, of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Norfolk, acted as deacon; the Rev. Father Smith was sub-deacon; the Rev. Father C. Donohue, of Newport News, was master of ceremonies. The music at the mass was very good and was composed by Brother Cuthbert and sung by the brother, under the direction of Prof. J. A. Linhard. At the conclusion of the mass the Bishop conferred his blessing on all present.

FATHER WILSON SPEAKS.

Rev. Father Wilson, of the Sacred Heart Church, Norfolk, delivered a short but eloquent address on education. He spoke of the value of a Christian education. He said: "Examine your penitentiaries and jails and you will find that their inmates are those who have a secular education and know little or nothing of their God. Virginia can justly boast of a set of Christian men and true followers of Jesus Christ. Her sons can be found all over the world and they are proud of Old Virginia."

He closed with an earnest appeal to parents to give their children a Christian education—to educate them so they will be a honor to their glorious State and city.

MUSIC ON THE LAWN.

St. Mary's Life and Drum Corps rendered several selections on the lawn, in front of the main entrance to the college. They were generously applauded and highly complimented by all. Brother Angelus, who for several years was director of St. Mary's Academy, Norfolk, was given an ovation and serenaded by the drum corps.

LUNCH.

About two hundred people from Norfolk, Portsmouth, Baltimore and Richmond were present. All were invited into the spacious dining-room, where lunch was served. All the delicacies of the season were in abundance.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.

The crowd then adjourned to the music hall of the college, where the following excellent program was superbly rendered by the students:

Introductory March. Welcome..... Robt. Scott Hudgins, Jr. Chorus—"The Morning Invitation"..... Vocal Class "Catholics in American History"..... Violin Solo..... George F. Collins

Thomas Clarence Cooke. "The Boy is Neglected"..... P. A. Fuller Chorus—"Let the Hills and Vales Resound"..... Vocal Class "Sketch of the Xaverian Brothers"..... Arthur C. Nealon

Cello Solo..... Selected Prof. J. A. Linhard. "Student Life at Old Point Comfort College"..... Seneca Morris Pike

Medley of Popular Airs..... Vocal Class Address..... F. A. Causey, Esq. A Word of Thanks..... John A. Curtis

Doxology..... The Entire Body Each number of the program was well received by the audience in long and generous applause.

This closed the exercises, and after complimenting the brothers on the success of the dedication and thanking them for the courtesies shown, the crowd departed for home with a lifelong remembrance of the day of enjoyment spent at Old Point Comfort College.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS

Semi-Annual Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon.

Report of Receipts and Disbursements—The Nurse Committee—A Comprehensive History of the Rise and Progress of the Order.

The semi-annual meeting of the King's Daughters of Norfolk was held at Epworth Methodist Church at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. S. D. Hope, of the Silver Cross Circle of Atlantic City, chairman of the Devotional Committee. She read Luke, 6:30-39 and prayer was offered by Mrs. W. T. Washington, first vice-chairman.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Miss Margaret Roper. Mrs. R. A. Mapp, secretary, read the minutes of the mass meeting held in February and all intervening meetings of the Executive Board.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

The treasurer, Mrs. Willoughby Cooke, read her report of the receipts and expenditures for the past four months, which showed the following gratifying exhibit:

Balance on hand last report..... $205.01 Collections..... 779.90

Total..... $984.91 Disbursements for all purposes, 487.02

Balance on hand..... $497.89

REPORT NURSE COMMITTEE.

Mrs. Caldwell Hardy, chairman of the Nurse Committee, reported the number of sick calls made since last meeting to be 376, of which 127 were made in April.

DEVOTIONAL COMMITTEE.

Mrs. S. D. Hope, chairman of the Devotional Committee, reported that since February one circle had been established in the outskirts of the city that employed one city missionary; cottage prayer meetings have been resumed, and that the Silver Cross Circle had been engaged chiefly this year in the care of the sick by providing nourishment, medicine, etc. This circle, with the assistance of Sunshine Circle, is endeavoring to secure passage to England for a mother and three small children who have no means to get there.

ORIGIN OF THE ORDER.

Mrs. W. H. Terry read a very interesting Silver Cross leaflet on the origin of the order of the King's Daughters and Sons, which showed that the chief object of the organization was to bring forces engaged in no efforts or in ineffectual efforts at things which they were never intended to do, into service in some line where their abilities would adequately meet an actual existing need.

MEANING OF THE ORDER.

Miss Virginia Old read a leaflet on "The Meaning of the Order," showing that its great purpose is the development of "Christian life," which is a higher type of "Christian living."

GROWTH OF THE ORDER.

Mrs. Caldwell Hardy followed in the reading of an interesting account of the "Growth of the Order," showing that for ten years since its organization, in 1886, with only ten members, it had attained in the ten years following a membership approximating 400,000. The order exists, in greater or less numbers, in North and South America, Great Britain, Germany, France, Italy, Greece, Switzerland, Denmark and Turkey, in Europe, India-China, Japan and Asia, Australia, New Zealand, the Sandwich and Hawaiian Isles, in the Bermudas and Bahamas. There are also individual members and circles in Palestine and in Smyrna and missionary have been sent to foreign lands and the Indians and our own vast plains have been helped by the King's Daughters and Sons.

MRS. WASHINGTON'S ADDRESS.

Mrs. W. T. Washington then delivered a practical and timely address on the papers read, taking them up in their regular order, and showed that the great success which had attended the order along these lines was not so much the work of planning as the work of executing plans after formulated. She said he or she who plans only can never achieve much success. In closing she urged the members from the various evangelical churches to more thoroughly consecrate themselves to the great work committed to their care and keeping.

After singing "Let Be the Tie that Binds," the meeting was dismissed.

N. & W. to Richmond or Petersburg $1.00.

Round trip next Sunday, June 4th. Leaves Norfolk 8:10 a. m., returning, leaves Richmond 8:00 p. m. on a special fast train. Goes rain or shine. Strict order will be maintained. My25-3t

JOS. F. HERMAN.

No Weather Report.

Owing to the fact that yesterday was a national holiday and the coincident fact that the Weather Bureau took a day off, the citizens of Norfolk and vicinity will have to do without weather to-day. This will be no special deprivation, as there are a sufficient number of weather prophets in town, always anxious to prognosticate, who can now get in their fine work. A great many people who have got down to summer underwear remarked yesterday that they didn't care whether they had any weather for the rest of the week or not; but some people are never satisfied. However, one day's lapse will only give a fresh appetite for Farmer Gray's daily side dishes for the rest of the season.

A fact worth knowing—Rudolph & Wallace have the largest force of workmen employed in the tailoring business in the State of Virginia.

MISCHIANZA CELEBRATION

President and Directors of Tidewater Carnival Association

BEGIN PREPARATIONS

Discussion at the Meeting Last Night of Features—Transportation Companies' Co-Operation—Methods of Advertising—Committee Appointed To-Day With Mr. McKean, a Carnival Promoter.

An important meeting of the president and directors of the Tidewater Carnival Association was held last evening at 6:30 o'clock at the office of the secretary of the Board of Trade and Business Men's Association, to discuss the matter of the proposed Mischianza celebration.

President C. Brooks Johnston presided, and there were present Acting Secretary E. E. Dawes, Messrs. H. Henry Jones, Colonel C. A. Nash, T. H. Daughtrey, J. W. Brown, I. Moritz and Mr. W. S. McKean, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. McKean was one of the promoters of the recent Peace Jubilee celebration, that was highly successful from an artistic point of view.

THE POSTAL REPLY.

The secretary reported that he had sent out eight hundred postal cards, on which the receivers were to send in their views on the proposed annual carnival, and that he had received sixty-six of the cards back. Fifty-six of these, from local business men in all lines of trade, were very favorable and the senders pledged their financial and moral support to the efforts of the carnival. Ten of the replies stated that the writers were not much interested in the celebration, but only one of the entire lot voiced any opposition.

MR. WILLIAMS HEARD FROM.

Secretary Dawes read a number of the cards to show the general drift of the sentiment of the business men, and they were regarded as lending much hope to the efforts of the promoters of the celebration. Letters from Colonel Walter H. Taylor and R. Lancaster Williams were read. That of Mr. Williams was so enthusiastic that we reproduce it here. It is as follows:

E. E. Dawes, Esq., Acting Secretary Carnival Association, Care Board of Trade and Business Men's Association, Norfolk, Va.

Dear Sir—I am in receipt of notice of meeting of the Board of Directors of the Association to be held this evening. I regret that important business calls me North, and I shall be unable to attend; at the same time I beg to
